NUNAVIK REGIONAL BOARD OF HEALTH AND SOCIAL SERVICES

CALL FOR INTEREST FROM THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The board of directors of the Nunavik Regional Board of Health and Social Services (NRBHSS) is seeking potential candidates for the position of executive director. For that purpose, the board of directors has tasked a committee, composed of several of its members, with selecting a candidate able to assume the leadership of the NRBHSS. This committee is therefore inviting interested candidates to read the present call for interest and apply in writing to the address provided. The chosen candidate would be mentored and trained by the outgoing Executive Director.

Summary Description and Primary Responsibilities
As executive director, the selected candidate shall assume responsibility for the administration, operations and development of the NRBHSS, in accordance with the guidelines of the board of directors and the expected results.

The executive director shall fall under the authority of the board of directors and shall see to the execution of its decisions. He or she shall represent the NRBHSS in dealings with other community partners as well as local, regional and provincial organizations.

Under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement, the executive director shall ensure efforts toward improvement of Nunavimmiut health, in particular by guaranteeing access to the care and services provided in the Nunavik health and social services network. Further, he or she shall see to the coordination of the establishment of health and social services in the region, particularly in terms of funding, human resources and specialized services.

The executive director must be capable of working within a vast and complex legal framework as well as with obligations of performance and transparency. He or she must also adhere to the organization's values: respect, quality, cooperation, integrity and equity.

Interested candidates should send their application, no later than December 10th, 2021, at 5:00 p.m.
