Are you the type of person who loves helping others, has great attention to detail, and enjoys asking questions? If so, then we're looking for you!

WE ARE HIRING RESEARCH ASSOCIATES

for our various research projects.

Your role will be to ask a series of questions over the phone or in-person and record their responses. This exciting opportunity will let you work from home or in our office, on your own schedule that fits within the team's needs.

The ideal applicant should be fluent in both Inuktitut and English and have excellent interpersonal skills.

To receive more information about this great opportunity or to send your resume, email Tosin or Moriah at titiqqaq@qhrc.ca.

Deadline to apply: July 22, 2022
