Specialist, Arctic Conservation

Location: Iqaluit/Nunavut preferred; Ottawa, Montreal possible

The Specialist, Arctic Conservation is a highly motivated individual that supports WWF's partnership building in the North towards community-led conservation of Arctic marine and terrestrial ecosystems. The conservation of Arctic habitats and wildlife is a key aspect of WWF-Canada's Strategic Plan, targeted to deliver by 2030.

This is a full-time permanent position that will require safe travel. Note safe travel will be determined by following the guidelines of Federal, Territorial and Provincial governments and following consultation with Indigenous communities.
