BUSINESS ADVISOR

Processing and Harvesting

The Nunavut Development Corporation is seeking a dynamic hands-on individual with a broad base of business and financial skills to assume the role of Business Advisor for its harvesting and processing subsidiary companies.

The Business Advisor will be primarily responsible for providing strategic, financial and operational support to two fish and meat processing companies located in Nunavut. The successful individual will posses proven financial management skills, have five-years of senior management experience and have strong communication skills; fluency in Inuktitut being a definite asset. Familiarity with federal and territorial regulatory framework enabling commercial harvesting (fishery or land based) and food processing will also be preferred. A moderate amount of travel will be required with this position.

The Nunavut Development Corporation offers a generous compensation and benefit package.

Preference will be given to beneficiaries of the Nunavut Land Claims Agreement

Only those applicants selected for a job interview will be contacted.

Resumes can be forwarded to the attention of Kyle Tattuinee on or before December 4th, 2026 at:
