

Senior Associate, Inuit Nunangat

Located in Iqaluit, NU

Tides Canada is dedicated to a healthy environment, social equity, and economic prosperity for all Canadians.

The Opportunity

Tides Canada is seeking to fill a position that is a facilitator of innovative social, economic, and environmental solutions led by the people of Inuit Nunangat. Among other things, the Senior Associate is responsible for supporting Inuit efforts to caretake homelands and marine resources, revitalize culture and language, build sustainable entrepreneurship in communities, and develop young and emerging leaders.

The Senior Associate will work closely with Inuit and community partners, as well as the Program Lead and Northern Program Specialist based in Yellowknife, NT. Given the nature of the role, we are open to many types of flexible work arrangements. Compensation and benefits for the position are northern-competitive.

The Candidate

We are looking for an independent person with strong communication skills who has a good understanding of the environmental and socio-economic opportunities and challenges in Inuit Nunangat. The ideal candidate is motivated to work with others to make positive change.

To view the full job posting please visit our website:

www.tidescanada.org/about us/join our team/ . For more information about the position please contact steve.ellis@tidescanada.org.

To apply please send your resume and a cover letter outlining your interest in the position to careers@tidescanada.org by February 1st, 2019.

Thank you.

Tides Canada is committed to creating a diverse environment and is proud to be an equal opportunity employer.