

NUNAVUT TUNNGAVIK INC.

NUNAVUT INUIT RESOURCE REVENUE TRUST INDEPENDENT TRUSTEE

Nunavut Inuit Resource Revenue Trust is seeking two (2) qualified individuals to serve as independent trustees for a term of ending November 2023 and November 2024 respectively.

An ideal candidate should have a combination of post-secondary education and relevant professional experience in the fields of finance, investment, accounting, business, law or corporate management.

Priority will be given to individuals enrolled under the Nunavut Agreement.

Nunavut Inuit Resource Revenue Trust was set up by Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. (NTI) and Regional Inuit Associations to invest and manage revenue from mining resource development in Inuit Owned Lands and other resource revenue received by NTI under the Nunavut Agreement and NTI's Resource Revenue Policy.

Nunavut Inuit Resource Revenue Trust is managed by seven trustees, three of whom are independent trustees.

Independent Trustees are generally required to attend one face-to-face meeting and one to two teleconferences every year, and will receive daily honoraria and reimbursement of expenses for attending to the business of the Trust.

If interested, please forward a brief cover letter and resume by email or fax to NTI's Chief Administrative Officer Hannah Uniuqsaraq by 5:00 pm EST, August 28, 2020. Please also contact Hannah if you have any questions.

A copy of the Trust Deed (that contains additional requirements or restrictions related to the position of Independent Trustees) and an Information Sheet may be found on NTI's website (www.tunngavik.com/about), and are available upon request.
