

Nunavut Sivuniksavut seeks a Full-time Instructor

Nunavut Sivuniksavut (NS) is a not-for-profit charitable organization providing innovative post-secondary education programming for Inuit youth. The organization has an opening for a dynamic and skilled individual to join the NS instructional team. This position will be a contract position for the current 2020-21 program year, and may be subject to renewal.

The ideal candidate will possess a combination of the following:

- knowledge of Inuit culture, the Nunavut Agreement, Inuit organizations, and the Nunavut political context
- familiarity with the NS program
- teaching or training experience, preferably upper high school or college
- a post-secondary diploma or degree
- experience working with Youth, preferably Inuit or other Indigenous groups, in an education/leadership capacity
- effective curriculum development, instructional planning and instructional delivery skills
- a willingness and ability to learn unique course material and delivery approaches
- an ability to work as part of a team in a highly-creative and demanding teaching and learning environment
- a willingness to be flexible and open to a wide range of duties
- strong communication, interpersonal and organizational skills

Start date: The successful candidate will be expected to integrate into current program delivery early in 2021.

When all other qualifications are deemed equal preference will be given to Nunavut Agreement Beneficiaries and candidates who are fluent in Inuktitut and English. Only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.

Expressions of interest, along with C.V.'s, may be sent by e-mail to: info@nsstaff.ca

Deadline: Applications should be received no later than Dec. 8, 2020.
