CPAC Indigenous Board Member Vacancy

The Partnership is currently seeking qualified candidates to fill a vacancy on its Board of Directors for the position of Indigenous Director at Large. The Board is comprised of 20 members and includes a dedicated self-identified Indigenous person with experience working to improve the health and well-being of First Nations, Inuit and Métis. The term of the Indigenous Board member is three years. The seat is rotated every three years to ensure membership from all three recognized Indigenous peoples, First Nations, Inuit and Métis, on the Partnership’s Board of Directors. Applications are being sought from the First Nations community for a three-year term on the Board from June 2021 to June 2024.
