Tata Steel Minerals Canada is operating its iron ore mining and processing operation near Schefferville, QC.

In addition to keeping our neighbouring communities and workers safe, responsible environmental management are among our top priorities. These include site restoration and revegetation efforts which proved fruitful at various locations including Goodwood and involved assistance from local Innu and Naskapi workers.

We carry out various monitoring programs at our Goodwood site: water, air, dust, wildlife.

To reach us, please contact:
coco.calderhead@tatasteelcanada.com